

ELECTRIC CARS ARE BEING USED TO PUSH TEAMS UP HIGHWAY

Building of Double Track in Anacostia Upsets
Traffic.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU:
ANACOSTIA, D. C., SEPT. 17.— Nichols avenue has been torn up for about one-fourth of the distance between Anacostia and Congress Heights in order to install the double track system, and the regulation of traffic on the highway has become a matter for policemen of the Eleventh precinct to deal with daily. Capt. W. T. Anderson, the commanding officer, has assigned several men to this duty. Congested conditions yesterday resulted in many teams becoming fast in the mire.
The trolley cars in operation between the two suburbs were called upon to push teams that were otherwise unable to get up the hill. Timbers were placed between the cars and the wagons and the latter were pushed along, to the astonishment of the mules that were hitched to the front.

Rapid work on the new track has resulted in its completion almost to the gates of St. Elizabeth's Asylum.

The residents of the Barry Farm district, who have been petitioning the District Commissioners for ten years or more for the introduction of some system that will enable the people of that community to be supplied with drinking water, all the wells having become dry among the hills, are about to be served according to their desires. Yesterday work was begun on the installation of a small water main, running southeast from the Congress Heights main on Nichols avenue, and it is the intention to install public hydrants at many points.

Bicycle Policeman James Harrover rounded up several vehicles that were proceeding southward along Nichols avenue without displaying lights.

John M. Owens, a gardener, left $2 at No. Eleven station to cover his alleged violation of the regulation in not having a lighted lamp on his conveyance. Sylvester Skinner was required to leave the same sum for a similar disregard of the law. John P. Van Ostrand, of Congress Heights, left $2 for failing to display a sufficient number of lights on his automobile.

Hopie B. Hudson, of Chesterton, Md. is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N.
H. Harnish, in Maple View avenue.

Dr. George C. Haverener and Mrs.
Haverener have returned from Frederick, Md., where Mrs. Haverener has been spending the summer, making the return journey by motor car.

SALE AIDS ASSETS OF DEFUNCT BANK

Another Dividend in Sight for Depositors of the Wrecked Rixey Institution in Alexandria—Culpeper Tracts Under Hammer.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU:
ALEXANDRIA, VA., SEPT. 17.— The sum of $47,975 was added to the assets of the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, as the result of the sale of the corporate real estate holdings by auction at Culpeper, Va., yesterday. These properties came into the possession of the concern, shortly before its failure last December, being transferred by C.
Jones Rixey, its president, as security for loans to himself.

Belle Park, comprising 322 acres of land, and formerly the Rixey home, was sold to E. P. Durcan, of Culpeper, for $20,000; the fair grounds tract of sixty acres to J. O. Fant for $5,000; a portion of the Tallafarro estate to J. E. Finks, of Culpeper, for $6,000, and the remainder to Mr. and Miss Winfrey for $2,000; a house and lot in Culpeper to Lewis P. Nelson for $2,375, while the unimproved term of the ninety-nine-year lease on the Culpeper postoffice building brought $3,000, the purchaser being John W. Yowell.

The five special commissioners appointed by Judge Louis C. Barley, of the corporation court, to conduct these sales, consisting of Samuel G. Brent, Gardner L. Boothe, R. C. L. Moore, Jr., John G. Hiden and Howard W. Smith, consider the prices realized as satisfying. Before the transfer to the new owners can be consummated the sales must receive the approval of the court.

Because of unsatisfactory bidding, the tract of 72 acres was withdrawn, the highest bid being $3 an acre. This, with the Cleveland farm at Culpeper, and holdings at Charlottesville, Newport News, Gordonsville and Remington, yet remain to be sold.

Whether the trial of C. Jones Rixey, already marked by a remarkable series of delays, will be put off longer or will be abruptly terminated, remains to be seen tomorrow, the date set last spring for his trial to answer to nine indictments returned against him by a special grand jury in connection with the failure of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation. While it is generally believed here that Rixey will appear in court, it is thought a lunacy commission may be appointed to determine his mental condition. Rixey already has been adjudged insane by a commission held at Orange, Va., September 3, and is at present confined in the Western State Hospital, at Staunton. Should the Alexandria commission find him mentally unsound, he will be transferred to the State Hospital for the Insane, at Marion.

Tomorrow will mark the passing from this vicinity of the Rev. John Cavanaugh, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, who will leave for his new pastorate at Brooklyn, N. Y. For many years he has held nightly meetings on the street corners of this city, regardless of weather, importuning sinners to repentance. A painter by trade, he often found opportunity to exercise his vocation in connection with the work of the gospel.

It is expected his farewell sermon to be preached tonight will be attended by hundreds of persons, regardless of their denominations.

According to a decree entered by Judge Barley, in corporation court, yesterday, Douglas Stuart and Joseph Stoddard, in the case of Michael J. Colbert and others against the Washington National Building and Loan Association, as receivers, must pay the costs assessed against C. Harry Yohs, special receiver in the case of C. Harry Yohs against the receivers of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation.

A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will be held in Lee Camp Hall next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

William P. Fearson To Be Buried Monday

William Penn Fearson, pioneer merchant of the city and one of the aged residents of Georgetown, who for many years had lived at 3227 N street northwest, died at his summer home, Tenth and Hamlin streets, Brookland, Thursday evening, from apoplexy. The last stroke was the second experienced by Mr. Fearson within the last two years.

The funeral will be held from the chapel of the Oak Hill Cemetery, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. William J. D. Thomas, of Brookland, officiating.

Born in Georgetown seventy-two years ago, Mr. Fearson came of one of the oldest families in the District.
His parents also were born in Georgetown. For many years prior to his retirement from active business, over fifteen years ago, Mr. Fearson conducted a dry goods business in Washington.

Mr. Fearson is survived by Mrs.
Fearson and a daughter, Catherine R. who is employed as a clerk.

SLAVONIC UNION TO HAVE HOME FOR ITS MEMBERS' FAMILIES

Ideal Tract Acquired in Maryland for Orphans and Widows.

Announcement was made by Paul Durbach, of the National Slavonic Union, before leaving Washington for his home in Sunbury, Pa., last night, that a national home for the orphans and widows of members of the union is to be established near Oldtown, Md., about sixty miles from this city.
Mr. Durbach, who has been at Oldtown nearly two weeks, came to Washington to report to the Slavs in this city that the deal whereby several hundred acres of land in Alle-gany county comes into the possession of the union, has been consummated. More than $70,000 was paid for the property, he said. Upon this land will be erected a series of homes, where orphans and infirm Slavs, as well as orphan children may find rest.

The purchase of this land represents one of the largest real estate purchases made in that section of the country for several years.

The land purchased is rich in timber and minerals. It is the intention of the National Slavonic Union, Mr.
Durbach said, to care for every Slav in America who is unable to support himself. Already district branches of the organization have established small and unpretentious homes about the country. The national organization he explained will bring to the Maryland reservations, the persons located in the smaller settlements.

Oldtown is a Western Maryland railroad and is easily accessible to every part of the country. The Slavs in every section, Mr. Durbach said, are submitting to the success of acquiring the new property.

Thief Likes Timepieces.

A second robbery at the moving picture show operated by Edward G.
Smith, on Eighth street, netted the thief a watch and chain valued at $15.

A few weeks ago a small brass clock and a watch were stolen from the theater.

Summer Sufferings

Of the stomach and bowels, which produce dysentery, diarrhea, cramps, sick stomach, watery and painful running off of the bowels, both with adults and children, is the result of stale or over-cooked vegetables, fruits, heat, and water. There are numerous remedies for these conditions, but as a rule they do more harm than good, because they contain opium, chloroform, and alcohol.
The simplest, safest, quickest, and most dependable remedy for these most troublesome and annoying conditions is

RO-I-NA

An old-time remedy, made out of the simplest drugs, such as rhubarb, the permat, soda, cinnamon, etc., all family medicines, but combined in different proportions than you or your druggist would mix them. A teaspoonful or two taken at the proper time will relieve you right away and won't leave any bad after-effects. The price, 15 cents, warrants you in keeping a bottle in the house. Made only by

SUITS PREPARED TO RECOVER BIG SUM FOR INSANE ASYLUM

Government Hospital in Fair Way to Obtain Return of $50,000.

When Corporation Counsel E. H.
Thomas filed numerous suits on behalf of the Government Hospital for the Insane early this week, that institution, it is believed, will be on a fair road to recover more than $50,000 which they declare is owing to them by "pay patients." It is also planned to radically change by legislation, if possible, the prevailing custom of trying patients before a jury to determine their sanity.

The preparation of the suits is the result of months of investigation, and will result in putting the institution on a business basis. The present action will be taken on the precedent set by the now famous Healy case, in which Justice Gould awarded the asylum more than $3,000 for back charges, then unpaid, when Healy, a patient, came into $200,000 through the death of a relative.

While all of the suits will aim to recover back charges, many of the suits will be totally different in principle and will, it is hoped, establish precedent. Among them is one to be brought against the estate of Lieut. Robert Simerson, U. S. N., a patient there.

Heretofore army officers confined at the Government Hospital have paid $1 a day for their keep, while navy officers have been charged but 50 cents a day, and have often not paid that.

The Simerson suit is expected to establish a uniform and equal rate for the keep of officers of this service.

While the finances of the institution are on a good basis, the necessity for legislation and a general straightening out has arisen through the mistreating of patients. Often patients are rated as "pay patients" who cannot pay and never do pay, and in this way the records of the institution are kept in disorder, and the hospital is left with large amounts owing.

Earthquake Registers Three Distinct Shocks

Somewhere within a 4,000 or 4,500 mile radius of Washington a well defined earthquake shook things up a bit late last night, three distinct shocks having been recorded on the seismograph at the Georgetown University Hospital.
The seismological laboratory is under the charge of Father Tomdorff. He said this morning that the earthquake began at 10:50 o'clock, lasting nearly an hour, and that the heaviest of the three distinct shocks came at 11 o'clock.
